

PORSCHÉ VEU

THE POETIC ACTIVIST
ARTIST. SPEAKER. EDUCATOR

ERASE SHAME. TELL YOUR STORY.

Porsche Veu aka The Poetic Activist is a bold & fiery artist, speaker, educator and author of many talents from Oakland, Ca. She has years of experience in spoken word, motivational speaking, and workshop facilitation, though she has been a creator and artist since childhood. Porsche uses her art to fight social injustice, empower women, youth, & the Black community, and advocate for mental & emotional health. Her first vulnerable stage poem "Caesar: A Poem About Suicide", an ode to her dog & story of fighting for mental health, pushed her to be unapologetically vulnerable and encourage others to erase shame & tell their own stories. From Ted Talk to Google to The Black Women's March, Porsche has been invited to speak, perform, and teach at a variety of events, workshops, & creative spaces, leaving audiences feeling challenged, motivated, & inspired.

SPEAKER & WORKSHOP TOPICS

Social Justice: DEI, Racism, Sexism, Art as Activism

Women & Girl Empowerment

Mental & Emotional Health: Art as Healing, Vulnerability about

Depression, Recovering from People Pleasing & Perfectionism, Self Love

Black Empowerment

WORK WITH ME

Keynotes, Motivational Speeches, & Spoken Word Performances

Panel, Podcast, & Lecture Features

1 Day or Series Workshops

Projects & Commissions (Poetry Visuals, Custom Poetry, & more)

Music Features

www.thepoeticactivist.com

info@thepoeticactivist.com

@thepoeticactivist

@porsche-veu